DAILY USE

THE NEW ANSMANN TORCH SERIES

DESIGNED FOR DAILY USE

The name says it all - the high quality ANSMANN Daily Use series brings light to the darkness at any time. The 5 different torches of the series were developed for a wide range of applications and are therefore an indispensable companion in everyday life. From trips to the basement, lighting dark corners around the house or during a blackout, to evening strolls, walking the dog and much much more, the Daily Use series is a must for any household both indoors and out.

WHY THE DAILY USE SERIES?

OUR ARGUMENTS

Compact

The DAILY USE series torches use an impressively compact and lightweight design to suit a wide range of carry options. From pockets to handbags, toolboxes to glove compartments and much more, these torches can be always close by.

Super bright

Thanks to the use of quality, high efficiency LED's and an optical reflector system for optimal focusing, the DAILY USE series torches offer incredible brightness without compromise.

Durable

With housings made from extremely robust aircraft-grade aluminium, the DAILY USE series has great durability. These torches can withstand dust ingress, drops and shocks without hindrance to performance.

NEW PACKAGING CONCEPT

Compact plastic-free packaging design with the familiar ANSMANN blue and clear specifications made from 100% cardboard. Appealing to the eye and kind to the planet!"
